

BTEC Public and Uniformed Services Courses at Maes y Lade

At Maes y Lade we deliver the Expedition Units for First Diploma in Public Services (Unit 13), and the National Diploma in Uniformed Services (Unit 9).

Located in the Black Mountains in South Wales, Maes y Lade is the perfect setting for preparing and carrying out expeditions in wild and remote country, and we can deliver the expedition in the following disciplines:-

- Hill/Mountain Walking
- Canoeing

The units require a minimum of a five-day residential experience, and our purpose built unit can cater for up to 38 students. Our dedicated staff will provide all the practical aspects of the unit, and all equipment is supplied. Whilst on the residential experience the students will also spend a minimum of one night away from the centre, in order to meet the requirements of the unit.

We also have experience in organising and delivering expeditions in Scotland, the French Pyrenees, the Dolomites and Morocco, which would make ideal locations for a second expedition for the National Diploma in Uniformed Services.
